Mrs. Henry Ames of Dayview, Northampton county, while witnessing the match game of base ball at the Fair Grounds on Thursday, was struck by a ball, and at the time it was thought was seriously injured. No more serious damage we are happy to be able to say was done by the ball received, other than being badly bruised.

Mr. Elzey will exhibit the "potato digger" which attracted so much attention at our Fair, at Accomac C. H., on next Monday and at Onancock on the following day. Many of our best farmers in the lower part of the county, who have seen it work, have furnished the gentlemen with testimonials to the effect "that no farmer can afford to do without it."

Rev. John W. Hundley in a note to us says: That in contributions to various benevolent enterprises as ascertained from the various churches comprising the Accomac Association, Drummondtown Baptist church takes the lead "per capita." With mingled pride and gratitude I make the announcement, hoping it may encourage and stimulate those who have contributed to this end.

About two weeks ago Mrs. Ella Garrison a very excellent lady, wife of Mr. Almer Garrison, of Baltimore while on a visit to her father's, Mr. Charles K. Taylor, near Mappsville, was taken ill and died in a few days. On Wednesday the 19th inst., a child of Mrs. Garrison died. Her sister, Miss Ida Taylor is now seriously ill and her mother has recently recovered from a serious illness.

Ames has kindly consented to deliver an address. Doors open at 7 o'clock p. m. Ice cream, cake and confectioneries for sale. Net proceeds for benefit of the school. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Judge Garrison, the staunch and earnest chairman of the Democratic party in solid Accomac, has erected in the court-yard a staging for the Democratic speakers very much like the platform of the Democratic party—solid, strong, broad and honest. If Glass-hall Johnny or any of his people ever get on that platform they will have the strongest and most honest work under them the party. Mr. Wise calls "apostates for the price of their apostasy," ever had.

The ladies of Jenkins' Bridge and vicinity will hold a fair Sept. 3d, at Oak Hall station on the New York, Phila. & Norfolk railroad. All persons indebted to us on account of "subscription" are urgently requested to come forward and settle next Monday, court-day. Every one at this season of the year, certainly can raise us the "one dollar" due us—and we trust they will spare us the trouble and expense of sending them a bill for same. If any of our subscribers are unable to pay us we will very cheerfully make them a present of one year's subscription—but all who can, "must pay us."

The commissioners appointed to mark the boundary line between Maryland and Virginia, have not located the buoys in Pocomoke sound to suit the Somerset oystermen—they claim that the line as marked takes a slice of what has heretofore been considered as Maryland oyster-territory, and the Virginians object to the citizens of our State crossing the line after oysters. A meeting of oystermen has been called to meet in Princess Anne to take steps to remedy the matter.—Somerset Herald.

Our porkers are dying up with the cholera. The Knights of Honor jubilee at Red Hills last Wednesday, was a decided success socially and financially.

Our Chincoteague "nine" have accepted a challenge from the Onancock "nine" to play on the Fair Grounds.

Colonel C. C. Long of Egyptian army notoriety, is registered at Matthews' hotel. Rumor says he will visit Egypt again soon, not to fight Arabs, but, as the representative of this government.

Interest centered in the skiff race for the silver pitcher. The contestants were the "John W. Edmonds" of Pocomoke, the "P. C. Nic" of Matthews' and "Soud" of Chincoteague. With a full sail breeze only, they sped away over the designated course; comments and opinions favoring the "P. C. Nic," the champion of Chincoteague. To the chagrin of her admirers, she came in just 48 seconds behind the "John W. Edmonds," and the prize was lost.

A meeting was held on the 24th pursuant to adjournment. No bids were put in for repairing the public road through district of Lee with Pennock's patent machine advertised to be let out to contract. Mr. Pennock being in town was invited before the Board and appearing gave a lengthy account of the machine's accomplishments in sections where it had been used. He received very patient attention, and it was gathered from him that after the first cost of putting the roads in order, the cost of keeping them so would be a mere trifle. In Pennsylvania where no roots interfered with the work the cost was from $12 to $15 per mile, here with woods on each side of a great deal of our roads the first cost would perhaps be $20 to $25. The Board finally laid the matter of the public roads on the table till its spring meeting.

A half dozen accounts were examined, allowed and ordered to be paid. As required by law the Board made up an estimate of the probable necessary expenditures of the county for the year ending, June 30, 1886. The aggregate of this estimate is $104,400, but there is in making it up necessarily a good deal of prospecting for the prophetic vision of the Board, like the rest of the human race can't tell "what a day will bring forth." In the estimate, not a cent is included for public buildings for it is thought a settlement with the treasurer, will reveal sufficient in hand to make the necessary repairs to court house, and clerk's office.

The county levy for the ensuing year was fixed at 30 cents per hundred dollars worth of property, and 50 cents per head; this is a decrease in the rate of five cents on last year.

The 21st day of September next was fixed upon by the Board as a day of meeting to consider especially and exclusively until finished the subject of what to do to the courthouse and clerk's office to meet the public needs. The Board will also determine that day in what company of insurers of those doing business in the county the poorhouse shall be insured for the next five years after October 11th, at a risk of $5,000.—In the meantime sealed communications to the Board by the agents who wish to bid for the risk can be left with the chairman, T. C. Kellam, at Locustville, Va. The Board adjourned to meet again on Saturday the 5th day of September next to settle with the county Treasurer for 1884 levy, and examine and certify the State insolvent and delinquent lists.

A Grand Hop. On Wednesday night that band of gallant knights whose deeds of valor on the field of gallantry are so well known and so highly appreciated by the recipients of their favors, the "D. J. C.'s" of this town—gave at Onancock a hop. To say it was an affair highly and best of its kind is only to say it was another of the "D. J. C.'s" clever entertainments. Beside the galaxy of beauty and wit from Accomac, many ladies and gentlemen from Northampton graced the occasion. The petite dances were choreographed by Mrs. M. Oldham, Jr., and Mrs. Robert P. Custis, of Accomac, Mrs. Alonzo T. Leatherbury and Mrs. Harry Nottingham, of Northampton. "All went merry as a marriage bell" until when the "we snail" young folks trended homeward. We add—Long live the "D. J. C."

The meeting called for the Fair Ground on August 26th, failed for want of a quorum, and those present adjourned to meet in Drummondtown on August court-day, 10 a. m. at the office of the undersigned. All members of the committee are earnestly requested to attend promptly.

Agricultural Fair Notes.
The Fair this year has been a successful one. Large numbers of people have attended daily, the attendance being unusually large on first day. The weather has been very pleasant, except the first day which was very warm. Good order and decorum have prevailed during the whole time. The only disagreeable feature of the Fair in fact has been the dust which the authorities exerted themselves but failed to keep down. The exhibits in several of the departments, were more numerous and of better quality than during previous years. The ladies and agricultural departments—especially attracted attention, and we doubt if the excellence of the exhibits in either will be surpassed at any Fair in our State this year. The stock on exhibition this year was inferior to that of other years, except the horses—which are always creditable to our people. The entries for style and beauty as well as those in the races were worthy of all the praise so universally accorded them—the many fine colts especially, attracted attention. The exhibits in the poultry department were good and many of them worthy of especial notice. Several of the exhibits in some of the departments were notably very fine. Many pieces of ladies' work, drawings by Mr. Lee Kellam, buggies by Messrs. Doughty & Ward, wagon of Mr. Crane of Pocomoke, potato digger of Mr. Elzey of Seaford, Del., tools of Messrs. Abbell Bros., of Belle Haven, received attention especially, which attested their excellence. The trotting races during the first and second days were attractive features of the Fair. On the first day three horses, (4 year old class.) Queen Dido, a fine gray mare owned by Richard E. Floyd of Northampton; Willie Peyton owned by Mr. Hove James and Mollie owned by Mr. Fred Waddy contested for the prizes. Queen Dido won the race in 2:30 1/2, the time being about 2:54, the track being shorter than a mile. On the second day's races, five horses were entered of the three year old class owned by Messrs. Fred Waddy and Waples Bros., Oswald White, H. C. Johnson and George W. Abell & Bro. The race was won by the mare of Waples Bros in time considerably less than 3 minutes. In the three days races, Queen Dido was an easy winner, the contest being between her and a horse of Mr. L. C. Turlington.

On Wednesday a match-game of baseball was played between the "Red Stockings" of Northampton and a nine made up of Chincoteague and Grangeville riders—and on Thursday between the "Red Stockings" and the Onancock nine, which contributed to the amusement of many. The "Red Stockings," were victors in both games.

An appropriate speech was made by Mr. Wm. T. Bundick on Wednesday. During the continuance of the Fair, the proceedings have been evidenced by an excellent brass band from Baltimore. A list of the premiums awarded and other matters of interest will appear in our next issue.

Democratic Convention.
The Democratic Convention for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Senator for the 37th Senatorial District and Floater members of the House of Delegates was held at the Fair Grounds on Wednesday, August 26th, 1885.

On motion, Mr. Zoro Willis of Northampton, was made temporary chairman and John H. Wise of Accomac, temporary secretary, which officers on motion were made permanent. After motion to go into the nomination of Senator, Mr. J. W. G. Blackstone of Accomac was placed in nomination by John J. Gunter and seconded by R. D. L. Fletcher, Mr. Blackstone was then nominated by acclamation. Messrs. Jos. B. Ames, John W. Kellam, Lloyd A. Winder and John J. Gunter were appointed a committee to apprise Messrs. Blackstone and Wilkins of the action of the convention and to request their attendance.

The committee retired and soon returned to the convention with Mr. Blackstone, who upon being introduced to the convention made a speech accepting the nomination, in which he pledged himself to do his utmost to bring out a large vote in the November election for our whole ticket, and if elected to devote his whole time and attention to the protection of the best interests of his people. The committee reported that Mr. Wilkins was detained at home on account of sickness, and for this reason was unable to be present. After a stirring speech by the old Democratic War Horse," Capt. Wm. P. M. Kellam, which elicited much applause, on motion the convention adjourned "sine die."
